

PREVENTION COLLABORATIVE

feminist inspired | evidence driven

We are looking for an individual to join our team as a Content Producer!

The Prevention Collaborative are a global network of practitioners, activists, and researchers working to better equip ourselves and others with the vision, knowledge, and skills necessary to end violence against women and their children worldwide. We believe that preventing violence is possible and that knowledge, evidence, and a strong feminist movement will help us get there. Communication is critical to our work and we are seeking a Content Producer to support our team.

This role calls for a talented all-rounder with initiative and drive along with a skill set that includes: video producing and editing along with some graphic design skills and copywriting ability. You must have excellent creative, written and communication skills, with the ability to create, plan and prioritise your schedule to meet deadlines. You will be a positive, enthusiastic and, motivated individual ensuring a high standard in your work.

Within this role you will also support the delivery of the Prevention Collaborative's communications strategy and work across the organisation.

Essential Functions:

- Filming content for website and social media
- Work with Communications Lead on design and copyediting for brochures, website and social media
- Develop infographics for training materials, website and social media
- Produce and manage social media content
- Post production and editing of all photography and video
- Uploading content onto our website and online drives
- Work collaboratively with other team members to ensure a consistent, integrated brand perception and visual identity.

Candidate Profile

Competencies:

- Able to deliver high quality video and design work
- Post production and editing of video
- Experience in designing branded content for web
- Creative thinker, articulate and persuasive and able to communicate operational initiatives and outcomes to a broad range of stakeholder groups.
- Ability to multitask several creative projects
- Work independently and use own initiative
- Strong English skills (high attention to detail in correct spelling and punctuation) and other languages a plus
- Excellent creative skills and a great eye for detail
- Strong IT Skills: Proficient in Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Premier Pro and Microsoft Office suite
- Commitment to mission and values of a progressive social justice organisation.

Education and Experience:

- Degree (or similar) in videography and design or equivalent experience in the creative or graphic design field.
- Experience working and/or living in different cultural contexts and geographies.

Compensation and Benefits

- We recognise the positive value of diversity, promote equality and challenge discrimination. We welcome and encourage job applications from people of all backgrounds.
- This is a home-based position, and candidates can be located in any country.
- Compensation will be relative to the level of effort and experience for this position and aligned with our fee ranges.
- Flexible hours: The role is for two to three days per week but the team is otherwise free to work at the time that gives you energy and makes you effective.
